TASTING NOTES & FOOD PAIRING

The grapes of this wine are coming of one of the best vineyards for Riesling in Germany: The Niersteiner Roter Hang (Nierstein Red Sloap). This wine shows a nice balcance between fruit and minerality. The palate will be covered with a beautiful accid structure and framed of fine citrus notes.

Culinary partnering very well with fine vegetables like asparagus, but also matching great with white fish, pork, veal or poultry. Also great to enjoy as a fine wine by the glass itself.
